XO MULTI-SPORT CLUB

MEMBERS' CODE OF CONDUCT

This code of conduct aims to set out the minimum standards for all members of XO Multi-sport Club. It should apply when training, racing, or taking part in club-sanctioned activities. Violation of the Code may result in a verbal or written warning, or may lead to termination of the member's membership status.

Members/athletes have a responsibility to:

- Represent XO Multi-sport Club when entering competitive events. Should a conflict of representation arise, management approval is necessary.
- Practice good sportsmanship at all times.
- Promote fair play over winning at all times.
- Show respect and courtesy towards others, regardless of race, age, ability, gender, religion, cultural background, or sexuality.
- Refrain from using abusive language.
- Refrain from any form of harassment.
- Behave responsibly and appropriately when representing the club.
- Display high personal standards and project a favourable image of the sport and XO Multi-Sport Club.

When training or racing, athletes have a responsibility to:

- Understand and adhere to the rules and regulations of the sport.
- Comply with race rules at all times.
- Be punctual at race events, training sessions, or when representing the club.
- Be responsible for their own safety, as well as the safety of others.
- Obey traffic regulations at all times.
- Be suitably attired in management-approved XO uniform when training, racing or representing the club.
- Refrain from any unsafe actions or activities that may or could result in injury of other members, competitors or the public.
